Winslow Community Meals

Winslow Community Meals had a breakfast for the Bikes, Blues and BBQ riders on October 1st. It was a last minute kind of thing but went pretty well. We served about 30 riders including Boyd Nesbitt's daughter's group. All that ate were very courteous and patient with the amateur wait staff (me). Michelle and Mary Bromley prepared a great breakfast fare. Shirley Nesbitt was our cashier and Stacy, Ricky and Iris Bromley did almost everything else. What a great bunch of people!

Meals would like to thank our Mayor for repairing the Hwy 71 entrance. He smoothed out the drop-off, making it much easier for us to get in and out. Thanks Randy!!

On November 1st we will be restructuring our dinner pricing. Shirley Nesbitt did the legwork to get Meals into the NWA Food Bank. They are allowing us to use the food to cook our noon meal. Since we cannot charge for food that we get from the Food Bank, we will ask for a $3 donation for a meal. We are hoping that more people will be able to afford to eat with us and that all will be willing to make the donation. We're going to try this out for about 2 months and then crunch the numbers to see if we can still pay our overhead. If it works out, we'll continue with the donation policy. There will be no menu this month while WCM evaluates the new source of groceries available from the Food Bank. Menus will resume next month.

West Fork High School

Submitted by Patty Burnett

Homecoming is this Friday October 7th .

9wks test is October 13th and 14th.

October 18th: EAST Night Out—This is similar to an open house. Students will be presenting their projects and sharing their success with you. We will start in the Middle School Cafeteria at 5:30 and then visit the new EAST classroom. Refreshments will also be served. Please let me know if you would be willing to bring refreshments to this event.

October 29th: Fall Carnival—EAST will be organizing and sponsoring Fall Carnival again this year. Our goal is to create a safe place for kids in our community to come and have fun. Clubs and community organizations will have booths like: cake walk, dart throw, needle in the haystack, muffin pan tosses, etc. Clubs and organizations receive all the profits from their own booths for an easy fundraiser opportunity. This event will run from 6:30-8:30. Again I will need your help: I will need candy and prizes donated and I will need a few parent volunteers to work the EAST booth.

October 24th-28th: Red Ribbon Week—EAST will be coordinating events to help increase drug awareness and promote a drug free environment.

MONTH-LONG FUNDRAISER for CASS'S CANINE RESCUE

A Garage Sale will be held each Saturday & Sunday during October from 9 to 5 on Vista Court off Hwy 71 between Winslow and Mountainburg near the old Smoke House.

Different stuff each week-end!

Money will go for Food and Vet Bills

Winslow Community Meals

Meals has arranged (tentatively) for a county health nurse to come to Meals and conduct a Flu Shot Clinic. It will be on November 21st from 1 - 3 PM.

Boston Mountain Fellowship Church Yard Sale

Boston Mountain Fellowship is having a yard sale at 30 Crest St., West Fork AR Saturday October 8th. It will be for our Youth Group.

Boston Mountain Fellowship Church

We want to welcome our new pastor Trent Hampton and wife Bethany. Congratulations.

HIPPY News for October

Hello All!

Who's ready for Fall? Me!

October is a fun month and it's also fire safety month.

HIPPY parents and kiddos come out to our next group meeting and learn how to make your homes safer this year.

Group Meeting: October 12th at 10 AM at the Winslow Ball Park (in case of rain, we will meet in the Fire Station)

Please give me a call or text if you have any questions. Hope to see you soon!

ROSES & THISTLES

The Mayor and the Winslow City Council send a BIG Thank You to everyone involved in the Marathon and WinFest activities. Mary Anderson, the members of WCDC, and all the volunteers and sponsors who made the 1st Winslow Marathon a huge success.

The WinFest committee worked tirelessly in spite of the rain so the Show could go on. A big thanks to everyone on the committee, Jesse Dean, Kymberlon Clark, Leah Jackson, Candy Reed, Justin Branson, and Jo Ann Kyle. Every year there are dozens of volunteers who come out and handle the parking, selling T-shirts and tickets, hostessing in the Hospitality Tent, putting up and tearing down the lights and the tent, picking up trash, and the myriad of other behind the scenes tasks that go to making WinFest a success year after year.
Thanks to Stephen McGehee for handling all the electricity and wiring that has to be checked and rechecked every year.
Thank You to each and everyone of you!!

Bikes, Blues, and BBQ in Winslow

By Rita Wuttke

BIKES/BLUES & BARBECUE...is like cats...either folks love it or hate it...as a motorcyle rider and previous owner of two bikes...I LOVE IT! I go down to the Brentwood rest stop and sit and enjoy the scenery and all the amazing bikes going by and parked around the rest stop! But, let me go back at bit...I started the saturday off by stopping at Farmers Market. It was very quiet. Ruby was sick and absent. The Library gals were setting up and had tons of goodies to sell. All the other vendors informed me that it was their last day...weather was turning too cold and time to stop coming. I think many of us will miss our regular treks down to market to buy/sell/chat and visit. About February we'll be itchin' to get back down there. Then I headed over to MEALS. They put on one bodacious BIKER BREAKFAST! Waffles, eggs, sausage, biscuit, gravy, OJ and more! I couldn't finish my plate it was that much and that good! Then I headed over to Brentwood. As usual Art & Kathy Hughes were barbecueing up a storm! The place was crowded with bikes! And this year another vendor of biker items set up in the parking lot. I just had to stop and Mikey's, it was wall to wall bikes there! Once a year the Ozarks around here rumble...considering the revenue local vendors make and influx of visitors seeing this beautiful territory, well, I just can't wait till next year! Oh, and I like cats too!

1st Annual Winslow Half Marathon & 5K Run

By Mary Anderson

For the last year a group of dedicated volunteers has worked at putting on a running race in Winslow. None of us had ever done anything like this before. In fact, most of us had never been to a race or participated in one. What we had going for us was a beautiful location and an amazing number of very talented people.

After what seemed like the hottest and driest summer in memory, the day of the race approached and so did the rain. The weather forecast kept saying 'isolated showers' but it fell steadily on Winslow. On Friday morning, the day before the race, the County Road Department started to work on a section of the course on Bunyard Road. We began to fear a disaster!

The runners, however, seemed undeterred. On Friday evening, over 150 of them came to check in at Fleet Feet in Fayetteville. The morning of the race over 60 of them registered at the school. They assured us that it was a perfect day for a race and they would be happy to get more rain. We looked at their expensive running shoes and hoped they wouldn't mind them turning orange!

200 runners lined up at the start and at the sound of the starting pistol, they were off. It was so exciting to see them surge through the school gate. The course wound onto School Street, then Main onto Van Buren. This was probably the hardest part of the course.
From Van Buren they turned onto Bunyard Road. The 5K runners went just short of Signal Hill Road. The Half Marathon went out to Jim Burnett's, a total of 13.2 miles from start to finish. There were water stations along the route to keep the runners hydrated and marshals to keep them on the right track.

On the return, runners came down Center Street to Peak's Park and the Finish Line.
Every runner completed the course. They were greeted with medals, applause and refreshments. The excitement was contagious and the feeling of accomplishment inspiring.

After the race some runners went on to a Post Race Luncheon and some to enjoy the music at Winfest. The feedback we got from the runners was overwhelmingly positive.

They liked the course, enjoyed the food and were truly impressed by the warmth and friendliness of the people of Winslow. They all said they would love to come back next year and bring some friends.

We wish to congratulate our record holders:

Half Marathon 1st Place Male Drew Conner of Bentonville 1.18.51.8
Female Abrena Rine of Springdale 1.34.17.2
5K 1st Place Male Tyler Davis of Fayetteville 21.45.6
Female Caroline Combs of Fayetteville 24.9.7

Our thanks go out to the WCDC who sponsored the race, Winslow City Council for their permission and support, Winslow Community Meals for the excellent lunch, Winslow Volunteer Fire Department for providing security for the runners on the course, Friends of the Library for providing healthy refreshments for the runners, the 4H Club for helping with clean-up and encouraging the runners, and the Winfest Committee for admitting the runners and sharing their day.

We would also like to thank our corporate sponsors who demonstrated their faith in this project with cash, product and services. They are listed on our website www.winslowrun.com and on the back of the T-shirts. Please thank them by giving them your business whenever you can.

Last, but certainly not least, our thanks go to the 50+ volunteers who made this venture and outstanding success. Some of them worked for a year to turn this from a dream to reality, giving of their time and talents with unfailing generosity.

A full accounting of the race financials will be available by December 1st on our web site and will be published by the Washington County Observer.

If you would like to be involved in planning a repeat in 2012, please come to the WCDC meeting on Tuesday, October 12th at the Library, call 634-7451 or e-mail administrator@winslowrun.com

Past, Present, & Future: Christopher Columbus

By: Christina Eichstedt christina-eichstedt@hotmail.com www.2012TheLastEntries.com

On October 12, 1492, a man named Christopher Columbus landed in the New World. Two months earlier, the Italian-born explorer set sail, backed by Spanish Monarchs, he intended to chart a course to China, India and "gold and spice" islands of Asia. He somehow found himself in the Bahamas, which made him the first European to explore the Americas since the Vikings set up colonies during the 10th century. Later that month, Columbus spotted Cuba but thought it to be mainland China, and in December the expedition found Hispaniola which he thought might be Japan. He soon established Spain's first colony in the America's along with 39 of his men. Sometime in March of the following year, the expedition returned to Spain bearing their riches (gold, spices, and "native" captives). By his third journey, Columbus realized that he had not actually reached Asia but had stumble upon a continent that was previously unknown to Europeans.

From what I've been able to find, the first Columbus Day celebration took place in 1792. New York City's Tammany Hall held an event to commemorate the 300th anniversary of this historic landing. One hundred years later, in 1892, President Benjamin Harrison issued a proclamation encouraging American's to mark the 400th anniversary of Columbus' landing. "On that day let the people, so far as possible, cease from toil and devote themselves to such exercises as may best express honor to the discoverer and their appreciation of the great achievement of the four completed centuries of American life". Columbus Day was not made a national holiday until President Franklin D. Roosevelt was in office in 1937. This was largely the result of intense lobbying by the Knights of Columbus which was a very influential Catholic fraternal organization. The day was originally observed every October 12th, but in 1971 it was changed to the second Monday of October.

Most people today view Columbus as an Iconic hero but this image has long been called into question. While he was victorious in landing in the Americas and settling colonies, at what price did he accomplish his victory? Europeans brought a host of infectious diseases, including influenza and smallpox, which decimated the indigenous populations. War between colonists and the Native Americans claimed a great deal of lives, and it's believed that upon landing in the Bahamas, Columbus and his men forced the natives they found there into slavery. While serving as Governor of Hispaniola, he reportedly imposed barbaric forms of punishment that included torture. Columbus Day, in some cultures is celebrated to recognize not the discoverer but the native people and their experiences during that time. For the future of Columbus Day, I say, honor the discoverer, for without him, we may not be here. I say remember the natives, whose lives were turned upside down by this same discovery. I say recognize anyone and everyone who has made a positive impact of where we as American's are at today.

Big Dreams

By Sandra Trent

I dreamed a couple weeks ago that Gov. Chris Christie was the GOP presidential candidate. Someone, perhaps a friend, was making me a T-shirt with his silhouette, and I tried coming up with a snaky logo for it. I mulled over three in the dream but only remembered one upon awakening: “Let him eat cake.”

While Herman Cain is on a roll in the polls, having handily won the Florida Straw Poll and, more recently, a poll of a national Republican women’s group, I do not believe a black man will ever be able to win over the massive bubba wing of the party.

Speaking of massive, many pundits, invariably thin, wonder if a morbidly obese candidate could ever be elected President. Well, it has happened before, and that was even prior to the period Americans became supersized.

I’m more worried about Christie’s other appetites such as attempting to present the taxpayers with a bill for a helicopter ride to his son’s baseball game, followed by a limo ride for the remaining few hundred feet. Even prior to becoming governor, Christie was awfully fond of lavish meals and hotel suites, all at taxpayer expense.

Isn’t this the very thing the Tea Party purports to hate? Why is he suddenly the great white hope now that Gov. Rick Perry’s star appears to be dimming?

Perry makes me long for the days of Dubya’s intellectual refinement. I agree with Jim Hightower’s assessment that Perry is simply a more corrupt, less intelligent Dubya.

No one candidate can fulfill all the ideals a scandal-weary, recession-weary populace demands. President Obama exemplifies what happens when ideals butt up against hot political reality.

Meanwhile, as the newest members of Congress continue to pour scalding tea on the struggling economy and to drench your retirement and stock market accounts with uncertainty, America grumbles and bestows the lowest congressional approval rating ever.

A bit ironic when you consider that Tea Party members are doing exactly what they told voters they would do while running for office. I’d like to give the electorate its lowest-ever popularity rating. Instead of getting involved in astro-turf groups funded by billionaires and dressing like George Washington, why not try picking up a magazine or newspaper and actually educate yourself about the corporate bought-and-paid-for state of politics in America? Maybe then you’d learn why Republicans, under Dubya, frittered away the Clinton surplus, approved bridges to nowhere, no-bid contracts, initiated the Wall Street bailouts and saddled the country with massive debt and a recession. A tale of corporate cronyism at its most feral.

Tea Party types have always been around. They impeached Clinton, a President far more fiscally conservative with taxpayer funds than G.W. Bush. If they were at all concerned with the rampant spending and growth of the federal government under the Bush administration, they didn’t utter a peep. Perhaps they simply switched over to the more palliative Long Island Tea and bided their time until they could blame the results of Dubya’s wretched excess on his successor.

Will Christie make it in? Perhaps, and it will be amusing to see how he justifies the run after saying that a person would have to be insane to run for President. Considering the current crop of Republican primary candidates, he may actually have a point. Yet another reason Wall Street is desperate for a viable Republican candidate to help undo some of the restrictions placed on the financial industry by the Obama administration in the wake of the fiscal meltdown made possible by Bush, Clinton and a host of elected officials who did Wall Street’s bidding and loosened regulations that resulted in a corrupt free-for-all.

Don’t worry about Christie’s weight. Worry about his appetite - along with the insatiable appetites of his benefactors.

Ozark Folkways: What’s Happening on The Mountain?

On Saturday October 8th from 10-4 we will host our annual Fiber Arts Festival and Competition at Ozark Folkways. There will be fantastic food, music, exhibitors, and giveaways at the Fiber Arts Fair.

Flyers are up, both online and at all your local hangouts, emails have been sent, and press releases have been issued. So help us spread the word even further.

Contest entries this year are in the categories of ‘knit and crochet,’ ‘spinning and weaving,’ ‘quilting,’ ‘wearable art,’ ‘children’s’ and ‘other.’ ‘Other’ includes every form of fiber art not mentioned in the other categories, including basket making, papermaking, etc.

Cash and ribbons will be awarded for works of merit, as well as a “Best of Show” winner.

Please bring out the whole family and support us at Ozark Folkways!

Sunday, October 16 and again on October 23, 2:00 PM. - 4:00 p.m.
Jo Ann Kyle will be teaching “Building a Family Tree For Kids”

Jo Ann Kyle has been working on her own family tree for 50 years. She will teach a basic class in genealogy for children age 10 and over who are interested in learning how to record their own family history.

This class is sponsored by the Walker Foundation and is free to all children wishing to attend. Parents are encouraged to attend.

You must register to assure your child’s spot. Contact Rebecca:
director@folkways.arcoxmail.com

This fall we are offering a “build your own” class, class! All you need to do is pick the type of class you (or your kids) would like to attend, gather at least 5 folks together on an agreed upon date, and let me know what else you need. If the date is open and we have classroom space, Ozark Folkways will provide an instructor, materials, even lunch, dinner and lodging, if you want to make it a getaway fall weekend. For a nominal cost per person you can choose the class of your choice and the day! If you’re interested, let us know.

We appreciate your support always!

Kindle Workshop A Great Success

By Jo Ann Kyle

The Publishing to Kindle Workshop given by Velda Brotherton at Ozark Folkways was a great success. She taught the basics of editing and formatting your book so you can publish it as an ebook to the popular Kindle, an ebook reader sold by Amazon. Even though I don't have a book that I want to publish, I attended the class because I get many questions about the subject in my job as librarian especially since we can now download ebooks at the library. Maybe I can point someone in the right direction.

Velda usually conducts two workshops a year, spring and fall, on the techniques of writing or publishing. Her classes are purposely small so each student receives individual attention. She teaches only as fast as the slowest person can learn. That doesn't mean that anyone gets bored, The students work together and willingly share their personal knowledge helping each other. Everyone learns not only the topic of the workshop, but often other techniques of programs and the computer. There is a lot of fun and camaraderie. You walk into a room of strangers and leave having made many new friends.

Thanks Velda ! It was a great workshop.

4 WIVES

Once upon a time there was a rich King who had four wives.

He loved the 4th wife the most and adorned her with rich robes and treated her to the finest of delicacies. He gave her nothing but the best.

He also loved the 3rd wife very much and was always showing her off to neighboring kingdoms. However, he feared that one day she would leave him for another.

He also loved his 2nd wife. She was his confidante and was always kind, considerate and patient with him. Whenever the King faced a problem, he could confide in her, and she would help him get through the difficult times.

The King's first wife was a very loyal partner and had made great contributions in maintaining his wealth and kingdom. However, he did not love the first wife. Although she loved him deeply, he hardly took notice of her!

One day, the King fell ill and he knew his time was short. He thought of his luxurious life and wondered, "I now have four wives with me, but when I die, I'll be all alone."

Thus, he asked the fourth wife , "I loved you the most, endowed you with the finest clothing and showered great care over you. Now that I'm dying, will you follow me and keep me company?"

"No way!", replied the fourth wife, and she walked away without another word.

Her answer cut like a sharp knife right into his heart.

The sad King then asked the third wife, "I loved you all my life. Now that I'm dying, will you follow me and keep me company?" "No!", replied the third wife. "Life is too good! When you die, I'm going to remarry!"

His heart sank and turned cold.

He then asked the second wife, "I have always turned to you for help and you've always been there for me.

When I die, will you follow me and keep me company?"

"I'm sorry, I can't help you out this time!", replied the second wife. "At the very most, I can only walk with you to your grave." Her answer struck him like a bolt of lightning, and the King was devastated.

Then a voice called out: "I'll go with you. I'll follow you no matter where you go."

The King looked up, and there was his first wife. She was very skinny as she suffered from malnutrition and neglect. Greatly grieved, the King said, "I should have taken much better care of you when I had the chance!"

In truth, we all have the 4 wives in our lives:

Our 4th wife is our body. No matter how much time and effort we lavish in making it look good, it will leave us when we die.

Our third wife is our possessions, status and wealth. When we die, it will all go to others.

Our second wife is our family and friends. No matter how much they have been there for us, the furthest they can stay by us is up to the grave.

And our first wife is our Soul. Often neglected in pursuit of wealth, power and pleasures of the world. However, our Soul is the only thing that will follow us wherever we go.

Cultivate, strengthen and cherish it now, for it is the only part of us that will follow us to the throne of God and continue being with us throughout Eternity.

Random Thoughts for the Month:

Remember, when the world pushes you to your knees, you're in the perfect position to pray.

Being happy doesn't mean everything's perfect.
It means you've decided to see beyond the imperfections!

We have no right to ask when sorrow comes, "why did this happen to me?", unless we ask the same question for every moment of joy that comes our way. (Author Unknown)

Some of God's greatest gifts are unanswered prayers. (Garth Brooks)

Trouble...meet it as a friend, for you'll see a lot of it and had better be on speaking terms with it.
