Do You Have Torticollis?

Torticollis is characterized by a sudden on-set of usually severe neck pain. Turning, trying to lift the head or almost any neck movement can be agonizing. Only those who have suffered from torticollis can appreciate the pain, suffering and expense it can cause.

People with a history of torticollis are more likely to have it again, unless they receive the proper preventive care, rather than mere symptom relief. Proper preventive care means addressing the cause of the problem, as in putting out the fire rather than unplugging the fire alarm.

Because chiropractic physicians are the only highly educated and trained specialists in correcting spinal misalignment problems which can cause torticollis, patients can respond remarkably well to gentle chiropractic care. By addressing the cause, and not just the symptom, recurrences of the pain can be avoided.

To avoid further pain, suffering and expense of torticollis, and other neuro-musculo-skeletal problems, call Roberds Chiropractic Physicians, before July 15th, and receive a full complimentary consultation to find out if natural chiropractic care is the answer you've been looking for.

Our phone number is 479-294-6144. We are located at 194 N. Centennial Ave, in West Fork, Arkansas.

New Publisher for Within Winslow

By Jo Ann Kyle

Bobby Dockery, minister of the local Church of Christ contacted me about a month ago asking to write a column for Within Winslow on The Spiritual Pen page. At the same time Bobby and his wife Meredy offered to print the paper for us through their non-profit organization, Gospel Tracts International, located in Elkins, AR. This organization sends out over 30,000 brochures, booklets and books a year both nationally and internationally. The first page of the paper will be in color and to help set it off we will soon have a new masthead, also in color. I will continue to gather the articles, edit, and prepare the paper for printing. Debbie Brown will continue to put it online for us.

Encaustic Workshop for Beginners

Saturday, October 14, 10:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Presented by Cindy Arsaga

This workshop is for people wishing to learn the basics of encaustic technique. We will focus on equipment, materials, basic techniques, safety, and health precautions.

Encaustic is an ancient technique using beeswax (or other wax medium) and damar resin. The two are combined, brought to a controlled temperature and applied in a molten state to any substrate that will accept the medium.

If you are interested in creating mixed media art, it is convenient for including found objects, papers, organic items, pretty much anything that will allow incorporation with the wax. It also works well when applied to newspaper and photographic images printed on uncoated papers as well as unglazed ceramics.

I will provide various substrates, encaustic medium, oil sticks, and items compatible with wax for inclusion in mixed media pieces. If you wish to bring some of your own items to work with please feel free to do so. The wax will not adhere to anything that resists water.

Please wear clothing that you don't mind getting wax on. Bring your own apron if you have one. I'll provide a few.

Cost is $125 per person for this full day workshop and is limited to six. Bring a sack lunch and beverages. There is refrigeration on site.

All tickets must be purchased prior to the workshop and the number is limited, so call today! (Ticket cost is non-refundable and is viewed as a donation to Ozark Folkways.) If you are unable to make the class, please let us know as soon as possible, so we can offer the open spot to others.

THOUGHTS FOR THE 4TH OF JULY And Everyday

The Spiritual Pen

YOU THINK ABOUT THAT

By Wesley Wood

Mark of the Beast and the CHIP

Point 5 continued from last month. Revelation 13:18 tells us "666" is the number of a man. Revelation 13: vs 13 thru 18 tell us he will do great wonders by which people will be deceived. With the Church teaching knowledge instead of Faith the World stage is right now being set for this to easily happen. The last Preacher I heard had to tell about how he had doubts about a sermon and afterwards someone came up and said something that gave him confirmation it was the right sermon. Confirmation and Faith can't coexist but that is what the Church members today are basing they relationship with God and that's going to make it real easy for them to be deceived by this guy's great wonders. Yes, the Chip could be the means of storing the number 666 if you choose to join the Beast. But it won't be put there without your consent. The phrase in Revelation 19:20 "them that had received the mark" clearly implies "with your knowledge and permission".

6. Revelation 13:18 tells you the number of the Beast if you care to read. Revelation 13:17, 14:11, 16:2 19:20 tells you what will happen if you join the beast and allow his number 666 and yes you will have a choice to put it in your chip if that is the means they use to confirm you have the number. You will be required to show the number to either buy or sell.

7. Here's the bottom line, God is a God of "Love" "Mercy", "Judgment" "Wrath" and "Punishment". To understand that you have read the Bible from cover to cover at least 15 times not exaggerating. You have to believe ever word is literal fact inspired by a literal living God who created the universe and everything in it including you. For that reason, God will not allow anyone to receive the number 666 in their Chip or by any other means without knowing and understanding exactly what they're doing and the consequences.

8. One way or another, depending on technology at the time you will sign a sworn statement: (a) you understand you are denying the true and living God and swearing allegiance to the Anti-Christ/ The Beast. And (b) you understand by doing so you re dooming yourself to eternal punishment in a Devil's Hell, before you get the number 666 in your hand or forehead Revelation 13:16. You say; that scripture implies you will be forced to receive the Mark but not so fast; Revelation 20:4 tells about those who did not received the Mark clearly implying you will have choice. You will have two choices; 1 Receive the number and spend eternity in Hell or 2 reject the number and get beheaded and spend eternity in Heaven. Whether it is via the Chip, Tattoo, or other means, it will be placed

REST FOR THE WEARY

In Matthew 11.28, Jesus said, "Come unto me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest." Wherever the Bible has gone, these words have taken hold of the hearts of people!

Jesus is speaking about rest in this life as well as the life to come. In effect, Jesus is saying to us: "All your weariness and restlessness is rooted in Godlessness. You are exhausted because you are estranged from God!" "Get right with God," Jesus says, "and you'll find rest for your souls...!" Jesus offers...

1) Rest From Guilt. So many people are burdened and weighted down with guilt. The Bible compares the wicked to the troubled sea which cannot rest. (Isaiah 57.20-21.) In Christ we find renewal and peace with God. (Ephesians 2.13-16.)

2) Rest From Emptiness. Many are restless because, for them, life seems pointless and meaningless. They are exhausted by the aching emptiness of their existence. In contrast, Christ offers to fill us "up to all the fulness of God." (Ephesians 3.19.) "For of His fulness we have all received, and grace upon grace." (John 1.16.)

3) Rest From Anxiety. Many are deeply anxious about the future. But Jesus said: "Do not be anxious for your life, as to what you shall eat, or what you shall drink; nor for your body, as to what you shall put on. Is not life more than food, and the body than clothing... Therefore do not be anxious for tomorrow; for tomorrow will care for itself..." (Matthew 6.25. 34.) We can feel secure about the future knowing it is in the hands of God!

4) Rest From Burdensome Religion. Jesus was speaking to people who were desperately trying to be good but were finding the task exhausting. The Pharisees had made religion a thing of many burdens. (Matthew 23.4.) But Jesus insisted, "My yoke is easy and my burden is light." (Matthew 11.30.) The words of a beautiful old hymn say:

*I heard the voice of Jesus say, Come unto me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down Thy head upon my breast.
I came to Jesus as I was, Weary and worn and sad;
I found in Him a resting place, and He has made me glad.*
